PETITION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND

Glendale Broadcasting Company, (Glendale), by its attorneys, now petitions for leave to amend its application in accordance with the attached amendment.

In Exhibit 2 of its Monroe application (attached hereto), Glendale reported that an application to assign LPTV construction permit W23AY from Raystay Company (Raystay) to GroSat Broadcasting, Inc. was pending. Glendale stated that Raystay would divest any interest in W23AY is Glendale's Monroe application was granted. The attached amendment

The amendment is being filed pursuant to Section 1.65 of the Commission's rules. In a motion to enlarge issues filed in the Miami, Florida television proceeding (MM Docket No. 93-75) on May 13, 1993, Trinity Broadcasting of Florida, Inc. (TBF) sought the specification of a Section 1.65 issue against Glendale based, inter alia, on the fact that Glendale did not report the grant and consummation of the W23AY assignment. Since Glendale had made a timely divestiture commitment with respect to W23AY, any obligation to report the subsequent developments was unclear. Nonetheless, Glendale is filing this amendment to show its good faith and to ensure full compliance with Section 1.65.

Glendale recognizes that the amendment is not being filed within thirty days after the events being reported. Untimeliness is not a sufficient reason for rejecting an amendment being filed pursuant to Section 1.65 of the Commission's rules. RKO General, Inc., 31 FCC 2d 919, 22 RR 2d 1051 (1971). Glendale disclaims any comparative advantage from this amendment. Since Glendale had made a timely divestiture commitment, no comparative advantage will result from this amendment.

EXHIBIT 2

(File No. BAPTTL-920114IB). If the application of Glendale Broadcasting Company is granted, Raystay Company will divest any interest it has in W23AY prior to the commencement of program test authority by Glendale.
